Multiply the Possibilities with Catholic Education!

What is the Texas Education Freedom Account?

Texas Education Freedom Accounts (TEFA) provides parents of students in non-public Texas schools a publicly-funded, government authorized savings account with restricted, but multiple, uses for their children's education.

- Student enrolled in an eligible school: up to $10,000
- A student with a diagnosed disability: up to $30,000
- Home-schooled participants: $2,000

Who can Apply?

While final rules will be set by the state, the current guidelines state that families may be eligible if:

- Student is a U.S. citizen, national, or lawful resident eligible to attend a public school (PreK - 12 grade).
- They meet income or other qualifying criteria.
- If a child is approved, so are the child's siblings who applied.
